

This is a digital copy of a book that was preserved for generations on library shelves before it was carefully scanned by Google as part of a project to make the world's books discoverable online.

It has survived long enough for the copyright to expire and the book to enter the public domain. A public domain book is one that was never subject to copyright or whose legal copyright term has expired. Whether a book is in the public domain may vary country to country. Public domain books are our gateways to the past, representing a wealth of history, culture and knowledge that's often difficult to discover.

Marks, notations and other marginalia present in the original volume will appear in this file - a reminder of this book's long journey from the publisher to a library and finally to you.

Usage guidelines

Google is proud to partner with libraries to digitize public domain materials and make them widely accessible. Public domain books belong to the public and we are merely their custodians. Nevertheless, this work is expensive, so in order to keep providing this resource, we have taken steps to prevent abuse by commercial parties, including placing technical restrictions on automated querying.

We also ask that you:

- + Make non-commercial use of the files We designed Google Book Search for use by individuals, and we request that you use these files for personal, non-commercial purposes.
- + Refrain from automated querying Do not send automated queries of any sort to Google's system: If you are conducting research on machine translation, optical character recognition or other areas where access to a large amount of text is helpful, please contact us. We encourage the use of public domain materials for these purposes and may be able to help.
- + Maintain attribution The Google "watermark" you see on each file is essential for informing people about this project and helping them find additional materials through Google Book Search. Please do not remove it.
- + Keep it legal Whatever your use, remember that you are responsible for ensuring that what you are doing is legal. Do not assume that just because we believe a book is in the public domain for users in the United States, that the work is also in the public domain for users in other countries. Whether a book is still in copyright varies from country to country, and we can't offer guidance on whether any specific use of any specific book is allowed. Please do not assume that a book's appearance in Google Book Search means it can be used in any manner anywhere in the world. Copyright infringement liability can be quite severe.

ANNUAL REPORT OF THE
Pennsylvania Commission of Soldiers' Orphan Schools
FOR THE YEAR ENDING MAY 31, 1901.

To the Senate and House of Representatives of Pennsylvania:

Gentlemen: As required by the provisions of the act of Assembly the Commission having in charge the Soldiers' Orphan Schools of this Commonwealth, herewith present for your consideration the annual report of the condition of the several schools for the year ending May 31, 1901.

May 31, 1900, there were 1,130 children in the schools, and on May 31, 1901, there were 1,159, showing an increase for that period of 29 over May 31, 1900. This concludes the thirty-seventh year of the existence of these schools, and twelfth year under the management of the Commission.

The year which has just closed has been one of the most eventful probably since the schools were controlled by the present system. On February 20, 1901, the splendid Mechanical Building of the Industrial School at Scotland, together with all the contents was entirely destroyed by fire. The fire occurred in the evening about nine o'clock, and fortunately no one was seriously injured. The Commission had been looking forward to the year just closed with great interest, as it was a legislative year and they had hoped to be able to show to the members of the Legislature such results from the course of instruction as would satisfy even the most critical that after all the only way to properly prepare these wards of the State for the battle of life was to train the hands as well as the minds and the loss coming as it did at the above mentioned time was a sore disappointment to the entire membership of the Commission. On the morning of February 21st telegraph orders were issued for new dynamos and engine to furnish light and fires necessary to connect up the steam heating plant. The boiler fortunately escaped destruction and in five days the steam was turned on and a few days later the electric light followed. The Commission was called together at once and immediate steps taken to re-build and re-furnish the plant, contracts being awarded to cover all the losses. The total loss was estimated at $62,000.00, on which there was an insurance of but $18,500.00. An application was made to the Legislature for an appropriation to cover the loss of the building at Chester Springs in 1899, and the Mechanical Building at Scotland in the sum of $74,000.00, which was promptly passed and work has been pressed forward vigorously and we hope to have the building ready for business at the re-opening of the schools in September. During the year there was also an epidemic of scarlet fever or rash, there being down during the epidemic 74 boys and girls. We were compelled to isolate them and use the farm house as a hospital, there being no hospital at the school. The most energetic measures were adopted and the disease soon stamped out. This sickness, however, demonstrated beyond question the absolute necessity of having a hospital building, and plans were drawn and a contract awarded for the erection of a hospital at a cost of $7,650.00. This is also under way and we hope will be finished at the re-opening of the school term. Therefore taking it all in all the year just passed has been full of perplexing situations for the Commission, because of the large number of little ones entrusted to their care. The following is the population at the different schools at the close of the year:

Chester Springs, Chester county, ...	325
Harford, Susquehanna county, ...	230
Jumonville, Fayette county, ...	331
Industrial, Franklin county, ...	273
Total, ...	1,159

When the new Mechanical Building at Scotland shall have been completed its industries will be as follows: Machine department, printing office, dress-making department, tailoring department, wood-working department, cobbling department.

In addition the boys are instructed in the running of engines and dynamos, the boys and girls in telegraphy, stenography and type-writing. The girls are also taught the practical side of house-keeping. The boys and girls work in the dormitories and laundry, and there is also a brass band for both boys and girls, with a competent instructor.

The Commission are a unit on the advisability of concentrating all the schools at Scotland. The State owns one hundred acres of land here, the water supply is amply sufficient and railway communications are of the very best, and we believe the results that would follow the concentration of the schools at this point would soon make the results apparent. On the question of expense, we believe that for $100,000.00 sufficient buildings could be erected and those now completed remodeled to accommodate the eleven hundred children and in four (4) years or less this amount could be saved and the State be the owners of a plant that when the present system should cease could be utilized for some benevolent State purpose. As it is now the Commission are compelled to rent the premises at Chester Springs, Chester county; Harford, Susquehanna county, and Jumboville, Fayette county, at a considerable outlay of money. The new plan of concentration has been the fond hope of the members of the Commission for years, and we trust that the money may soon be available for that purpose.

The Commission again reiterates the invitation so often extended for the members of the Legislature and in fact people from all the walks of life to visit these schools. We feel satisfied that should such visitations be made and the work looked into there could be but one sentiment expressed, and that would be satisfaction at the efforts being put forth to make earnest patriotic men and women of the children committed to our care.

The Commission, as at present constituted, consists of:

Governor William A. Stone.

On the Part of the Senate of Pennsylvania.

Jacob C. Stineman.

Andrew G. Williams.

On the Part of the House of Representatives.

Thomas V. Cooper.

William H. Bricker.

Albert M. Smith.

On the Part of the Grand Army of the Republic.

Thomas G. Sample.

Levi G. McCauley.

James F. Morrison.

Alfred Darte.

Thad. M. Mahon.

Every member of the Commission is a member of the Grand Army of the Republic, and the Legislature can rest assured nothing will be left undone to carefully guard the interests committed to their care.

Respectfully submitted,

WILLIAM A. STONE,
President.

JAMES F. MORRISON,
Secretary.

INSPECTRESS' REPORT.

To the Honorable Commission of Soldiers' Orphans' Schools, Harrisburg, Pennsylvania:

Gentlemen: In presenting this, my second annual report as Inspectress of the Soldiers' Orphans' Schools, I realize that the detailed reports of the heads of the various schools and departments embody all the leading features of the year, and that it is rather my province to make a general summary of the condition of the schools, and to point out any defects, and suggest any improvements or changes, rather than repeat the technical details already supplied by the officials.

In pursuance of my duties I have visited each school once each month. It is a source of congratulation that these visits were nearly always preceded or supplemented by those of some members of the Commission whose advice and assistance were always freely given, and whose personal attention to the condition of the schools should in some manner be placed upon record. While there is no desire on the part of the Inspectress to extend any fulsome praise, it is fitting that this report should note the fact that in every emergency, such as the destruction by fire at the Scotland School and the outbreak of disease at Scotland and Chester, the immediate personal attendance of the Managers (and of their Chief Clerk) has brought order out of chaos and that no exertions have been spared to maintain the health, order and discipline of the pupils. The Scotland fire took place at 9 o'clock P. M. of a winter's night and by midnight Colonel Thos. G. Sample and Chief Clerk J. D. Patterson had reached the spot by special train; had arranged for the heating of the remaining buildings and for the re-opening of the industrial pursuits. They were quickly followed by other members of the Commission, and the entire administration machinery was at once put in motion. The general public (always disposed to be censorious) can have no knowledge of the difficulties which have been overcome by the Commission except through the medium of some such official report as the present one. In this connection it will not be amiss to mention the devotion of the late Judge Alfred G. Dart, to the welfare of the Harford School. To visit this place, almost inaccessible in winter, he laid aside not only his manifold judicial duties, but every thought of personal comfort, travelling over dangerous roads in inclement weather, that he might be acquainted with every minute detail of its management.

The leading events of the year affecting the comfort of the pupils were (as just stated) the fire at Scotland, and an outbreak of scarlet fever, continuing for over three months, and which was finally subdued after the most vigorous and creditable efforts on the part of Dr. Skinner, of Chambersburg, and Miss Elder, graduate nurse. Not a life was lost or any permanent ill effects remain.

Unfortunately there was a different condition at Chester Springs, where there were a number of typhoid and measles cases, resulting in the death of three pupils. Beyond this the general health has been good.

A general statement of conditions affecting the food and clothing of all the pupils may be embodied in the fact that they have been entirely satisfactory. The food has been varied, well cooked and sufficient in quantity. The clothing has been suitable to the seasons, and of proper material, well made and comfortable. The sanitary and domestic arrangements have been especially attended to. The dormitories have been kept clean and well ventilated, and the moral and religious duties have been inculcated and cultivated under the direction of the Commission.

In the educational departments the usual system has been followed, and the results, as shown by the high averages maintained, and the promotion of two-thirds of the pupils places the seal of approval upon this system. The examinations were conducted by members of the Commission and by principals of respective schools. Besides the teaching of theories, an immense amount of general practical knowledge had been obtained. It must be remembered that the Scotland School labored under the disturbances of fire and sickness, and yet managed to graduate a class of fourteen High School pupils. From its industrial departments there are scores of pupils who bear testimony to the efficiency of the institution. They fill places in different parts of the Commonwealth as teachers, musicians, clerks, stenographers and typewriters, telegraphers, electricians, printers, tailors, dress-makers, carpenters, machinists, housekeepers, bakers, cooks and laundresses. An innovation during the year was the opening of the printing and tailoring departments to females, as well as males. In this latter department there will hereafter be made all the uniforms and civilian suits of the pupils, one of the incidental losses by the fire was the destruction of over two hundred uniforms which had been made by the inmates. They have however been replaced by work which is highly creditable.

All those in charge of the schools, together with the pupils, had labored to prepare an annual entertainment suitable to present to the Commission, the G. A. R. Posts and the public, as a mark of their advancement during the year. All of these were successful in greater or less degree, as evinced by the hearty praise of all. There were many prominent persons present, distinguished in public and private life. Mrs. Catherine Roche, of Scranton, Pa., Department President of the Ladies of the G. A. R., being one of the guests at Harford.

While it is not the intention of your Inspectress to advise the Commission, there is one subject which seems to call for attention and which might be easily susceptible of remedy. The commingling of the older pupils with those of extremely tender age is objectionable. It is an absurdity to classify boys of four, five, six and seven years of age as being subjects for the control of a military instructor. They are rather subjects for a nurse of some kind and efficient matron. In the case of the boys particularly, it is unwise and injudicious to throw them in contact, sleeping and waking, at play and at work with the older lads. However kind and considerate a military instructor may be, it is not possible for him to give proper care and attention to the needs of boys of such tender years. I venture to suggest the establishment of a separate cottage or building at Scotland for the exclusive use of these children. There are more than two hundred of them under seven years of age. It is proper to say that this matter has been already noticed by members of the Commission, who possibly have already determined upon a plan.

The last official act in life of the late honored and lamented William F. Stewart was in behalf of the orphans. When men such as he dedicated their lives to the welfare of these schools, it is not surprising that the pupils sent forth become intelligent and useful citizens.

Very respectfully submitted,

LAURA P. SWENTZEL,

Inspectress.

INSPECTOR'S REPORT.

West Chester, June 30, 1901.

To the Commission of Soldiers' Orphan Schools, Harrisburg, Pennsylvania:

Gentlemen: In presenting the Third Annual Report of my inspections of the four schools under management of the Commission, it gives me pleasure to state that the hope expressed in my last annual report, that we would be able to present greater claims for progress during the school session just closed than the preceding ones, has been realized. I have made special reports of important matters immediately after each inspection, also detailed monthly reports. It has been my endeavor during inspections to take the time necessary to examine everything thoroughly and it gives me pleasure to congratulate the Commission on providing such a class of assistants for their work as to cause the inspector to be everywhere received with that openness and frankness during the performance of his somewhat critical and exacting duties, which often in its way has told as much as the inspection itself.

Upon my first visit to the schools in September, when the children returned from their vacation, there were in attendance at the Harford School, 131 boys and 99 girls; at Jumonville, 207 boys and 127 girls; at the Industrial, 157 boys and 118 girls; and at the Chester Springs School, 214 boys and 110 girls, a total of 1,165, of which there were 711 boys and 454 girls. At the end of the school year there were in attendance at the four schools, 705 boys and 454 girls, a total of 1,159. The admissions and discharges during the year show a decrease of 10. It is somewhat surprising that at the time of the first annual report of the Commission in 1890, there were 1,122 children on the rolls of the Soldiers' Orphan Schools, while at the close of the school year just ended there were 1,155, as above stated. The Code of Rules issued by the Commission during the last session, has been very beneficial and has set out plainly the importance of the superintendents calling the teachers and other employes of the school together frequently, in order to have a clear and harmonious understanding as to the workings of their several departments.

The food furnished for the children was abundant and well prepared and in accordance with the bills of fare presented. There has been each year a gradual and noticeable improvement in the general condition of the rooms of the buildings and the grounds. Excellent gardens and truck patches have been kept up at all the schools. The introduction of electric lighting at Chester Springs and Jumonville has proven very beneficial in every way. The clothing for the children has been satisfactory and well made. Economy and business like methods seem to have been used in conducting the schools.

The children assemble twice daily for devotional exercises, and on Sunday they usually have service and sermon in the morning and Sunday School in the afternoon. The children are devoted to reading, therefore I would earnestly recommend to the Commission that the libraries in all the schools be furnished with new books, as the old ones have been read and re-read so often that new ones would be greatly appreciated and enjoyed.

The health of the children during the past year has been very good, only three deaths having occurred: Harry Young died November 20, 1900; Frederick Maule died January 21, 1901; Samuel Love died January 31, 1901. All died at the Chester Springs School, and were buried in the lot set apart for that purpose in the cemetery of the Vincent Baptist church, located near the school. In my report for May, I filed with the Commission in the office of the Commission at Harrisburg, a sketch of the marble monument erected by the State on the lot above referred to with the names of the deceased children who were buried there, and upon which are engraved the dates of their deaths; there being fourteen, the first date being January 11, 1875, and the last January 31, 1901. The lot and monument are in good order.

I found during my monthly visits to the schools that very few of the children were in the hospitals. Some of them returned after vacation with cutaneous diseases. This causes more or less annoyance each year but is soon checked by prompt treatment. There were about sixty cases of scarlet fever at the Industrial School during December and January; forty girls and twenty boys, but it being of a mild form all recovered. The school buildings were fumigated and every precaution taken to prevent the spread of the disease by isolating the stricken children in the farm house hospital. The children at all the schools were vaccinated during the year. A good dentist has been sent around by the Commission at least quarterly during the year, and children requiring special medical treatment have been sent to the hospitals as last year.

I am pleased to state that I have witnessed fire drills at certain inspections and found the military instructors competent to handle the boys at such times. It has been the endeavor to have these drills at least once a month. The value of this precaution has been proven at the Industrial School. The Mechanical Building with all its valuable machinery was completely destroyed by fire February 20, 1901. Fortunately the boiler house, with four large boilers, and the laundry building were saved. Sparks and pieces of burning wood were blown near and over the Administration Building where the children were sleeping, but it was saved by Colonel Bambrick and his well trained and disciplined fire brigade, by keeping the roof wet. The children who were not on duty were detained in the dormitories of the Administration Building during the excitement and were not injured. The Chambersburg Fire Department reported very promptly to the school in response to notice of the fire, but when it arrived the flames were under control. The building burned was a brick structure 50 by 110 feet, two and a half stories high. In it were the machine shop, full of lathes and other expensive machinery; the wood-working shop also filled with machinery tools and working material; the tailor shop, with sewing machines and much material; the dress-making room, with sewing machines, material and twenty-one full outfits for the girls just completed and ready for distribution; the band room, in which were two full sets of band instruments and about $200.00 worth of music; and the engine room, with its fine engines and two electric dynamos, pumps, etc. Temporary arrangements were made by the Commission to enable the different industries to be resumed immediately, with the exception of the printing and machine departments. Up to the time of the fire the different industries were running very successfully. The type and presses in the printing department were also destroyed.

Under an experienced printer the boys and girls are doing the composition and mechanical work for the Industrial School News, and the Department of Telegraphy, Phonography and Typewriting continues in a progressive state, under the instruction of one of our late pupils. Captain Skinner, with the faculty and children of the Industrial School, attended the G. A. R. encampment at Gettysburg early in June. The drills given by the boys and the calisthenic exercises by the girls seemed to delight the G. A. R. comrades and all present. Many children have been successful in getting good positions after graduating from the Industrial School. I was delighted a short time ago while riding on a train to have one of our late pupils recognize me and tell me that he had obtained a good position with the Pennsylvania Railroad Company as fireman.

He showed me his check for last month's services, and said that he had good prospects for advancement in the near future.

Considerable money is saved the State each year on account of the work done by the boys and girls in the Industrial Departments at Scotland. For example the printing for all the schools including blanks for various reports, commencement programs, etc., etc., is done at this school. Certain furniture is made here for the other schools, while many other practical uses are made of the boys' skill. The girls in making their own clothing at the various schools have also aided in this saving. The tailoring department at the Industrial School, including both boys and girls, working under a competent instructor, have made all the uniforms for the boys at this school and hope next year to furnish the uniforms for all the schools. At Harford there has been introduced in the course in Civil Government a method which has proven most practical and useful as well as instructive. I found that the boys and girls there could tell a great deal about our national government, the manner of elections, etc., our State government and many other useful things of this kind. There was also a list hung upon the wall with the heading of "Current Events." The pupils are expected to write on this list events which they have read from day to day. This seems a very advisable scheme and I mention it here with the hope that it or something similar may be introduced in all the schools. In passing through the class rooms from month to month I have noticed that satisfactory advancement has been made in the educational departments of all the schools. The children seem to grow in earnestness and application and the teachers appear anxious to encourage them in every way.

The commencement exercises at all the schools were a source of congratulation to those in charge of them. Many of the exercises given showed that great care and trouble had been taken and nothing left undone in the endeavor to present to the Commission and others present the best possible entertainment. The children showed in many instances a remarkable facility in doing particular parts which speaks unmistakably for the general efficiency and discipline of the schools. It is in these exercises that we see the good results of the years' work.

The boys' drills were inspected by members of the Commission at the various commencement exercises and the Commission know the general efficiency of this branch, and of the girls' calisthenic exercises. Excellent specimens of map drawing and penmanship were exhibited on the walls of the class rooms at all the schools, besides other pleasing exhibits at the Industrial School. At the Industrial School and at Chester Springs all the members of the Commission were present at the commencement exercises with the exception of Hon. Thomas V. Cooper and Captain James F. Morrison. At Uniontown, General L. G. McCauley and Col. Thos. G. Sample attended, while at Harford, Col. Thos. G. Sample, General L. G. McCauley and Judge Alfred Darté were present.

The speeches made by members of the Commission at the schools during commencement exercises and at other times, were much appreciated by the children and cannot help but tend to raise the high moral standard toward which the schools are striving.

It has not been the endeavor, in this report, to introduce, except in a general way, the multitude of details contained in my special and monthly reports, but rather to present, in so far as possible, the general condition of the schools and attitude by those in charge toward their work. And in closing I can but express my thanks to the members of the Commission for their prompt executive attention given to the needs which have unexpectedly arisen from time to time in the various schools, and to congratulate them and the others who have the responsibility of the children in their care, for their earnest performance of that trust.

Very respectfully submitted,

S. G. WILLAUER,
Inspector.

REPORTS OF SUPERINTENDENTS.

CHESTER SPRINGS.

Chester Springs, Pa., July 1, 1901.

To Commission of Soldiers' Orphan Schools, Harrisburg, Pa.:

Gentlemen: I have the honor to submit the eleventh annual report of the Chester Springs Soldiers' Orphan School.

It is the verdict of many persons who are in positions to know, that the year just closed has been one of the most successful in the history of the school.

The children, with few exceptions, returned promptly and in excellent condition at the close of the vacation. The year's work was begun by the children, as well as the employes, with a fixed and steadfast purpose to place this school in the front rank of all the schools in the system. I now confess an honest pride in saying that by a united and harmonious effort on the part of all concerned, this worthy ambition has been crowned with success. The school is in first class condition. There has not been a single runaway or complaint during the entire year.

Ninety-five children have been admitted during the school year, and an equal number discharged by reason of age or transfer to the Industrial School at Scotland. These transfers are made with reference to mental and physical fitness. Transferring the brightest children and receiving new arrivals changes the standing of the school and retards progress. However, by faithful and persevering effort the newly admitted pupils are advanced to take the places of those discharged.

I regret to report three deaths during the year. Harry Young died of lepto-meningitis, Fred Maul died of spinal meningitis, and Samuel Love died of consumption. Near the beginning of the year there were several cases of typhoid fever, and later in the term we had a few cases of pneumonia. These cases under the care of our skillful physician, Dr. Wells, and the efficient nurse, Miss Renfrew, happily recovered.

Considering the large number of children in the school and the condition of many before they are admitted, we can truly say the health of the school has been very good.

The educational department has been under the supervision of Miss Buohl, principal, assisted by a corps of faithful and experienced teachers. That good and faithful work was being accomplished by teachers and pupils was evident from the usual number of excellent literary entertainments given during the year.

All holidays, Thanksgiving, Christmas, New Year, Easter, &c., were properly observed and appropriate services were held.

On April 27th we were highly entertained and instructed by Charles Pennypacker, Esq., of West Chester, who delivered an entertaining address on the subject, "Early History of Chester Springs." On May 15th Mr. Thos. Martindale, of Philadelphia, visited our school and entertained the children for more than an hour by giving an account of his hunting trip among the woods and lakes of northern Maine. Mr. Martindale knows how to interest and instruct children.

Memorial Day was properly observed. A number of boys, including the band under the care of Major Holt, accompanied by the superintendent and others held appropriate ceremonies in Vincent Cemetery where a number of our former pupils are buried, and strewing flowers on their graves as well as those of old soldiers. Having received a cordial invitation from Phoenixville Post 45, G. A. R., to join them in the proper observance of Memorial Day, we accepted the kind invitation and with a majority of the girls under the care of the matron, and a large number of boys including the band, commanded by Major Holt, accompanied by the superintendent and other employes, went to Phoenixville on the noon train, Post 45, G. A. R., furnishing free transportation. We were royally entertained by the Post and good people of the town.

These beautiful Memorial exercises as well as the bountiful treat of ice-cream and cake will be long remembered by the children.

Our annual examination or commencement which took place June 13th was witnessed by a large number of visitors. Col. Thos. G. Sample, Judge Alfred Dart, Major Levi G. McCauley, Hon. T. M. Mahon, Hon. J. C. Stineman, Hon. A. G. Williams, Dr. A. M. Smith, and Hon. W. H. Bricker, members of the Commission. Hon. J. D. Patterson, chief clerk; Major S. G. Willauer and Mrs. Laura P. Swentzel, inspectors. Rev. J. W. Sayers, Mr. Martindale, Mr. S. Abrahams, Rev. Henderson, Rev. Trafford, Mr. J. O. K. Robarts, Mr. T. J. Dunbar, &c. After the entertainment in the evening, the members of the Commission addressed the audience, complimenting the boys and girls for their excellent drilling on the campus and splendid entertainments, and the general good appearance of the children and buildings. In short, all were pleased with what they had seen and heard during the day.

Religious and moral training has not been neglected. Sabbath school was held every Sabbath and devotional exercises daily. Preaching in chapel on special occasions.

During the year many necessary improvements were made in and about the buildings. All needed repairs were made to keep up the good appearance of the place.

Before closing this report, I wish in this public manner to thank the Commission for courtesies while in their employ, Post 45, G. A. R., and the good citizens of Phoenixville for their royal entertainment on Memorial Day, Messrs. Charles Pennypacker and Thos. Martindale for their interesting and instructive addresses, the employees of the school for their uniform kindness and faithful work during the entire year to make the school a grand success, and the good people in this vicinity for their kind treatment and good will. Thanking God for his continued goodness, I am Welcoming Committee, Harford Soldiers' Orphan School, Annual Examination, June 11th and 12th, 1901.

HARFORD.

Harford, Pa., May 31, 1901.

To the Commission of Soldiers' Orphan Schools, Harrisburg, Pa.:

Gentlemen: I have the honor to present herewith the thirty-fifth annual report of the Harford Soldiers' Orphan School.

The school year opened on September 1st, at which time the children returned promptly from their vacation. The average attendance during the year has been 230 pupils. There have been admitted during the year, 51 new pupils. We have discharged 37 and transferred 8 pupils to the Industrial School at Scotland. The general health of the children has been excellent throughout the year, having had no serious sickness. On account of the prevalence of small-pox in his vicinity the children were all vaccinated in February, by order of the Commission. There has been no death in our school since April 18, 1897; more than four years.

Weekly meetings of the faculty have been held throughout the year, keeping all informed and in close touch with the pupils, resulting in much good.

The Ripple Literary Society was formed early in the year and exercises were held in the chapel every alternate Friday evening. The pupils took much interest in this work.

During the year a short period was given at study-hour each evening for the study of current events, Civil Government and the Constitution. This has been of great benefit to the pupils, giving them a better knowledge of these subjects than the average voter.

Church service has been conducted each Sunday by ministers from Harford village. Sunday school and devotional exercises have also been conducted throughout the year.

Our buildings are old and dilapidated and will require much repairing during the vacation period to make them habitable and comfortable.

The water supply is not adequate. The deep well drilled for our use a year ago gave us some relief, but that too fails in time of drought and we are obliged to draw water from Harford village, nearly two miles.

The school enjoyed several entertainments during the year. At Christmas a beautiful Christmas tree was provided for the children and with nuts, candy and fruit so generously provided by the Commission all were made happy indeed. Our annual sugar party and sleighride were also much enjoyed. Through the kindness of Col. Ripple, we were again delighted with a visit from Bauer's noted 13th Regiment Band, a report of which appeared in the Scranton Tribune.

Our annual commencement was held on June 11th and 12th. Several members of the Commission, the State Inspectors, and many visitors were present. The program was well rendered in every detail and the exercises gave such general satisfaction as to draw forth much favorable comment from members of the Commission and other friends of the school. The very satisfactory and encouraging remarks of the speakers reflected great credit upon the Principal and his corps of able teachers, who have worked with such zeal and harmony that such splendid results might be attained.

The State Inspectors have visited us regularly each month. We have also had visits from Col. Thos. G. Sample, Hon. Judge Alfred Dart and Major Levi G. McCauley, representing the Commission. These visits are always helpful to the management of the school, and more of them would be beneficial and appreciated accordingly.

In closing I desire to thank the Commission for their always watchful care of the children and ready support of the officials here in charge; the chief clerk for his uniform kindness; the State Inspectors for their kindly interest and advice; the faculty and employes for their ready co-operation; and Col. E. H. Ripple, who keeps our library supplied with books, brings us so many entertainments and whose heart is always open to the appeal of the soldiers' orphan.

Respectfully submitted,

JAS. E. MATHEWS,
Superintendent.

UNIONTOWN SOLDIERS' ORPHAN SCHOOL.

Jumonville, Pa., June 30, 1901.

Commission of Soldiers' Orphan Schools, Harrisburg, Pa.:

Gentlemen: I beg leave to present the thirty-fifth annual report of the Uniontown Soldiers' Orphan School.

The whole number of pupils in attendance during the year ending May 31st is 413, of whom 94 were admitted during the year. Twenty-nine have been discharged on age, twelve on order, and forty-one by transfer to the Industrial School at Scotland, Pa., leaving the number on the roll at close of the year 331. One pupil, Harry Gist, has been placed for treatment in the Passavant Memorial Home for Epileptics, at Rochester, Pa. The health of the pupils generally, has been exceptionally good. One of our pupils, Katie Lewis, has been suffering from tuberculosis, and one pupil, referred to, has developed a severe form of epilepsy. There were several cases of diphtheria, which yielded readily to treatment. There has been no epidemic of contagious disease during the year and we are spared the necessity of recording a single death.

The school department has been under the efficient direction for the past two years of Prof. Thos. E. Wilson, Ph. D., and commendable progress has been made. By this kind, yet firm and effective methods, excellent discipline has been maintained and the duties of the school room have seemed a pleasure to the children, rather than irksome tasks. Mr. Wilson severs his connection with this school to become the superintendent and principal of the Chester Springs school. It gives us pleasure to say that under the administration of Mr. Wilson the school has advanced and the discipline has been every thing that could be desired. While we regret the departure of Mr. Wilson who has won the admiration and affection of the children, we congratulate him on his promotion, and wish him the same degree of success in his new relations that he has attained here. Miss Hamilton, who is a good teacher, has also been transferred to the Chester Springs school. In connection with this subject of the school department I would remind the Commission that several years ago they recognized the need of an additional room for the primary school. This need has not diminished by the lapse of time, but has increased by the admission of many small children. Two teachers giving instruction at the same time in a crowded room, cannot be expected to accomplish the best results, or do justice to themselves or the children. Notwithstanding the disadvantages under which they have labored the work of Mrs. Wanbaugh and Miss Redding in the primary school has been well performed. Miss Redding withdraws from the faculty to take a course of training in primary and kindergarten work.

The deportment of the children during the year has been in the main very commendable. The only serious offences were those committed by a number of boys who absented themselves from the school without leave of absence.

Chapel service morning and evening of each day have been maintained and church service and Sunday school on Sundays. There has been no sectarian end in view in any of the religious instructions given, but the aim has been to cultivate character by instilling the essential truths of the christian religion. This I take it is the best preparation for useful citizenship.

Military drill has been kept up during the entire year—the “setting up” exercises every morning, and the manual of arms and field movements when the weather permitted. The result of the work in this department has been pronounced satisfactory by those most competent to judge. To stimulate and encourage the boys of the battalion, two prizes were offered, consisting of silver medals for excellence in military drill. The first of these medals was won by Rollie Sincley and the second by Harry Clearwater. The military department has been under the care of Major Wambaugh.

Quite a number of improvements and repairs have been made during the year by the proprietor. New roofs have been put on several of the buildings, new floors laid, and a new 15-inch sewer has been laid for surface drainage. The position of outside closets has been changed and the new sewer so arranged as to thoroughly flush the closets with every rain.

By your direction twenty small beds have been placed in “Vine” cottage for the accommodation of the small boys, thus allowing a larger number of the little fellows to sleep under the same roof with their matron. The reading-room of “Magee” cottage has been furnished with an attractive new carpet and similar furnishing placed in a number of the rooms for teachers and employees.

Our annual examination took place on the 18th and 19th of June. There was not a very large attendance of visitors, and Col. Thomas G. Sample and wife, and Gen. L. G. McCauley, who represented the Commission, were accompanied by Miss Emily Patterson and Mrs. Butterworth, and Maj. S. G. Willauer and Miss Laura P. Swentzel, State Inspectors.

Though few in number, the members of the Commission and visitors were certainly appreciative. It is not necessary here to recite the events of the “annual” or detail the programme carried out. But it is not out of place to say, in behalf of the teachers to whom the credit of training the children belongs, and in behalf of the children themselves, that the performances were perhaps the most satisfactory that we have given. There was not one number that was not well rendered. Among so many creditable performances it is difficult to particularize. The calisthenics and dumb bell exercises were given with faultless precision. From beginning to end there was not a wrong motion. For grace and beauty we have never seen the motion drills "The March Winds" and "The Lily Elves" excelled. The musical features were also excellent. Indeed the whole entertainment was a pronounced success.

The military drill was up to the usual standard of excellence. A unique feature of this drill was the exhibition given by the Hospital Corps, who in mimic show carried the wounded from the field of battle to the field hospital, first binding up their broken limbs and stanching their bleeding wounds.

We believe we can say, at its close, that the past year has been a very successful one. The relations between the superintendent and his corps of assistants in every department has been of the most pleasant kind, and there has been harmonious and hearty co-operation on the part of all the faculty and employes.

We desire to thank the Commission for their intelligent supervision and their readiness to do everything to promote the welfare of the school.

The inspectors have paid us regular monthly visits, and have dealt with us in kindness and fairness. We believe that they have conscientiously performed their sometimes trying duties.

To all those associated with the management of the school, in every capacity, we return our thanks for their earnest and ready co-operation, which alone has rendered the work of the year a success.

J. A. WATERS,
Superintendent.

SCOTLAND.

Scotland, Pa., June 30, 1901.

Commission of Soldiers' Orphan Schools, Harrisburg, Pa.:

Gentlemen: I have the honor to submit the sixth annual report of the Soldiers' Orphans' Industrial School, located at this place, with accompanying reports of the instructors in the various departments.

I took charge of the institution as superintendent on July 1, 1900, relieving Prof. Thounhurst, who had been assigned to duty at the Chester Springs school. I was extremely fortunate in being able to begin my administration with the aid of almost the same corps of faithful and intelligent instructors and assistants who had been employed during the previous year. Several of these had been connected with the institution from the time of its opening in the fall of 1895, and being thoroughly acquainted with all the details of the work to be done, my duties as superintendent were much lightened in consequence thereof. In fact there was not a day during the entire year when I could not but feel that every effort of mine for the good of the school was being faithfully and loyally supported by all those around me. The spirit of harmony and good feeling prevailing among the employes had its full effect upon the children and they seemed at all times contented, happy and much interested in their work. There were no desertions, no grave infractions of the rules and consequently no necessity for harsh or severe punishment. The great majority of them seemed at all times to be jealous for the good name of the school and on all public occasions during the year their general deportment was of such a character as to elicit the most favorable comment. Although the scheduled work of the school year was very seriously interrupted, first by the prevalence of an epidemic of scarlet fever and afterwards by the very disastrous fire in our Industrial Department, a good showing for the year was nevertheless made in all the departments. This at least seemed to be the opinion of the members of the Commission and other prominent visitors as expressed at the close of our commencement exercises on June 26th. Both Col. Sample and Judge Darté in the course of their addresses to the graduating class unhesitatingly declared their belief that the work of the school year had not been surpassed in the history of the school and that the commencement exercises proper were without doubt up to the required standard of the most critical observer. While we have all felt very proud over such expressions of commendation we have not allowed ourselves to overlook the fact that we had been given, at the beginning of the year, a number of the very brightest pupils from the other schools and that we had been afforded many facilities which the other schools did not possess.

At various intervals during the latter part of the school year we were visited by delegations from Harrisburg, composed of State officials and members of the Legislature. The most notable of these visitations was that of the appropriation committee of the House of Representatives during the latter part of May. On all such occasions exhibition drills and various other exercises were given to the manifest pleasure and delight of our distinguished guests.

On Memorial Day the entire school was taken to Chambersburg on a special train, furnished without cost by the Cumberland Valley Railroad, and during all the exercises the boys and girls were given the post of honor and contributed largely to the impressiveness of the ceremonies. The local newspapers spoke in unstinted praise of the conduct and exercises of the boys and girls, one of them saying: "Their presence helped make our Memorial Day services the best the town has ever known."

The greatest and most enjoyable event in the history of the school year was the visit of the entire school to Gettysburg, June 4th and 5th, during the meeting at that place of the annual encampment of the Grand Army of the Republic, Department of Pennsylvania. Complete arrangements having been previously made for transportation and entertainment by Col. Sample, Congressman Mahon and Mayor Patterson, on behalf of the Commission, we left here on a special train at 7 o'clock on the morning of June 4th and reached Gettysburg at 10.30 A. M. Provisions for two days were taken along and good quarters for the boys at the High School building and for the girls at the Theological Seminary building were secured. The time from our arrival until our departure for home at 6.30 on the evening of the 5th, was, with the exception of the hours needed for rest and refreshments, taken up by military drill and calisthenic exercises on the college campus, by instrumental and vocal music and recitations in Z Hall before crowded audiences, and by visitations to all the more important points on the battlefield, where the main features of the battle were explained by Captain Long, the celebrated battlefield guide. There was but one opinion expressed by all with whom our children came in contact during the visit, and that was of the most favorable character. Hon. S. McC. Swope, president judge of the courts of that district, said to us as we were about leaving for home: "Captain, you should feel very proud of your boys and girls. Their conduct has been unexceptionable and their general appearance superb. They are an honor to the State and to all who have had anything to do with their management." The visit of the children was certainly a pleasing one to the old veterans present at the encampment. The marching and military evolutions of the boys seemed especially to arouse their enthusiasm. It doubtless served to remind them of the days, now long gone by, when as boys not much older than these Scotland boys of ours, they were marching forth into the heat and flame of the great battle for national unity and national life.

Our commencement exercises on June 25th and 26th were well attended and apparently of much interest to all. Owing to the fact that the Legislature was then in the closing hours of its session some of the members of the Commission by reason of their duties as members were unable to be with us, while others were present for only a few hours. Those who were able to be with us during the whole of our exercises were Gen. McCauley, Judge Darté, Col. Sample, Congressman Mahon and Chief Clerk Patterson. Our inspectors, Major Willauer, and Mrs. L. P. Swentzel, were also present and took a lively interest in all the exercises. The weather was simply perfect and nothing whatever occurred to mar the pleasures of the occasion. Judge Darté presented the diplomas to the members of the High School graduating class and delivered a most eloquent and impressive address in connection therewith.

The necessity of keeping this report within proper limits forbids that I should make mention of many other matters which might very properly be embraced within it. Some of these matters have received attention or have been touched upon in the reports herewith submitted by the heads of the principal departments. These reports, in connection with my own, will afford a pretty good general idea of our year's work. We have all striven to give a good account of our year's stewardship and trust that we have not altogether failed to do so. It would be idle for us to say that all the good accomplished is due to our own efforts, because a large share of it has been due to the members of the Commission of Soldiers' Orphans' Schools, who have at all times been most solicitous for our welfare and have aided us in every proper way.

To all those who have been associated with me in the responsible work of the year just passed, I beg to tender my warmest thanks. The more arduous part of the work has been theirs and they deserve the greater share of the credit for whatever of good has been accomplished. I feel also that my acknowledgments would not be complete without ascribing a fair share of praise to the children who, by their general good conduct and cheerfulness under every circumstance have helped make the year one to which I can always look back with pleasure.

EDUCATIONAL DEPARTMENT.

Capt. G. W. Skinner, Supt. Soldiers' Orphan Industrial School:

Dear Sir: I here submit my first annual report as principal of the Soldiers' Orphans' Industrial School educational department.

Although the past year has been crowded with unavoidable happenings calculated to bring discouragement to both teachers and pupils, they surmounted each difficulty bravely and neither fire nor pestilence daunted them in the onward march toward a successful completion of the year's work.

Since the opening of the school, September 1st, special attention has been given to drills in composition work, letter writing, spelling and such practical accomplishments as will be invaluable to our boys and girls when thrown upon their own resources in the business world. This work has been found to be a stimulus to the regular scheduled work of the curriculum rather than a hindrance, and although it necessitated many hours of extra duty for the teachers, all agree that the marked improvement along these practical lines of education has been more than worth the effort.

Recognizing in our pupils an urgent need of something to counteract the timidity and bashfulness displayed when called upon to speak in public, regular bi-weekly exercises along this line were instituted. In addition to these exercises a number of impromptu programs were rendered for the entertainment of distinguished and appreciative visitors. The Girls' Glee Club and choir played an important part in all these functions and deserve much credit.

It has been our aim throughout the year to teach pupils to do things by performing the prescribed duties and exercises themselves and placing upon each piece of work the stamp of the pupil's individuality.

The slight change made in the law, relative to the time pupils shall be discharged, makes it possible to have a graduating class at the close of each school year. The class day exercises held June 26th, when twelve boys and eight girls received their diplomas, was a fitting close to the year's work.

It is to be hoped that these graduating exercises may in the future be a leading feature of the annual commencement.

The standard set on past examination days has been high. The teachers realizing that under the present conditions anything short of the established precedents would leave the effect of failure, put forth their best efforts to reach and even surpass all previous records. How well they succeeded can best be told in the words spoken by a member of the Commission: "The exercises were such as we had hoped this school might sometime be able to give."

The pupils have been uniformly obedient, respectful and studious, the interest in class room work during the last quarter being especially commendable. While striving for the prizes offered by a member of the Commission for the highest general averages those who lost the special prizes gained rich rewards in the efforts put forth for advancement.

The religious instruction of the year has consisted of preaching on each alternate Sabbath afternoon, Sabbath school classes each Sabbath morning, and daily evening worship. During the year our pupils took part in the evening worship personally and many of the more advanced pupils acted as substitute Sabbath school teachers in a very efficient manner.

My fellow teachers have labored faithfully and cheerfully for the best interests of the school. To my superior officers I am indebted for kindly criticisms, timely suggestions, liberty of action and unswerving support in all matters pertaining to the prescribed school work.

Very truly,

W. C. BAMBRICK.

INDUSTRIAL DEPARTMENTS.

Scotland, Pa., June 30, 1901.

George W. Skinner, Supt.:

Sir: I have the honor to herewith submit the sixth annual report of the Industrial Departments of the Soldiers' Orphans' Industrial School.

On September 1, 1900, the school term was opened, and instructors and pupils started in for the year's work with the apparent determination to make this the banner year in the history of the school. The instructors had taken advantage of vacation period to thoroughly renovate the machinery, small tools and material of all kinds in their departments and every thing was in first class condition.

Every thing moved along satisfactorily. The pupils manifested a deep interest in their work and had made rapid progress until scarlet fever broke out in the school, which reduced the average attendance of pupils in the departments, and to a certain extent interfered with the interest that they had heretofore taken in their work. This condition necessarily existed for several weeks, and just about the time things were assuming their normal condition, and almost all of the pupils who had been out through illness, had returned to their departments, and everybody seemed to have taken a fresh start, and we still hoped to make this the most prosperous year in the industrial departments in the history of the school. We were again doomed to disappointment, for on the night of February 20th, about 9 P. M., a fire broke out in the engine room from causes unknown, which completely destroyed the Industrial Building. This was the first real test of the fire apparatus at the school, and I am happy to say the same worked to our entire satisfaction. The fire hydrants in the vicinity of the Industrial Building being in use, and a line of hose run from each hydrant, and while the Industrial Building was a complete loss, yet the boiler room which is located only twelve feet, and the laundry, which is located only thirty feet from the destroyed building, were both saved. It was a cold night and a high wind was blowing, and it was feared for a time the main school building would be destroyed, as the sparks were blowing in that direction. In view of the this fact, assistance was asked for by 'phone from the fire department of Chambersburg. They responded cheerfully, sending the only steam fire engine they have in the town and two lines of hose, but owing to the delay in loading the apparatus on the car in Chambersburg, for which nobody is responsible, as the Cumberland Valley Railroad Company came to our assistance, furnishing a locomotive and cars, yet when they arrived on the grounds the fire was under control and it was unnecessary to unload the apparatus. The members of the fire department, Cumberland Valley Railroad people and the citizens in general from Chambersburg, rendered valuable assistance to the employes and pupils of this school and the citizens of Scotland and the surrounding country, who responded promptly at the outbreak of the fire. Many of them remained until the fire was completely extinguished, which was not until about daylight on the morning of February 21st.

On that morning we fully realized the seriousness of this fire. Through the destruction of this building the electric light plant was completely destroyed, and as that is the only light used we were left in darkness. In addition to that all the heating pipes passed from the boiler room through the burned building to supply heat for the main building. They were also torn down and in the wreckage, and the question of heat and light now confronted us, which meant that something must be done and done quickly. The condition of the ruins was such that none of the old material could be utilized, but upon inquiry it was found that we could get pipe from The Chambersburg Engineering Co. and Mr. Jacob Rinick, of Chambersburg, to make temporary steam connections, which was done at once, and in forty-one hours after the fire broke out temporary steam connections had been made and steam turned into the main building, which added much to the comfort of the pupils and people residing therein.

The matter of lighting the building was also a serious question. On the night of the fire Col. Thos. G. Sample, of the Commission, accompanied by John D. Patterson, arrived on the scene by special train from Harrisburg, and the question of temporary lighting was taken up at once with them, and a dynamo and engine ordered from the Westinghouse Co., of Pittsburg, and in just two weeks the building was again lighted by electric light. In ordering this engine and dynamo the question of a permanent electric light plant was also considered, and they will form a part of the new plant.

The next question to be considered was the temporary location of the industries. As all the clothing for the pupils is made in the sewing and tailoring departments, and must necessarily go on or incur an additional expense to have the same made by outside parties. This was accomplished, however, in a short time, and they were located in temporary quarters at different places, and the work in the several departments has been carried on until the close of the school term.

In the meantime the Commission has awarded contracts for the reconstruction of the Industrial Building, also for the machinery for the several departments, and it is hoped and expected that by the opening of the next school term, September 1st, that everything will be in readiness to again begin work.

For detailed reports of the several departments I would respectfully refer you to the reports of the instructors in charge.

There has been but one change in the corps of employes in the past year. Mr. Fred. W. Zorn, who resigned September, 1900, was succeeded as night engineer by Mr. C. Ed. Mickey, of Chambersburg, who has filled the position very acceptably.

In closing this brief report I desire to thank the members of the Commission for their many courtesies, and Capt. George W. Skinner, superintendent, for his assistance and co-operation in the work of the year just closed.

Respectfully submitted,

WM. H. STEWART,
Superintendent of Industries.

PRINTING DEPARTMENT.

Capt. George W. Skinner, Supt. of Soldiers' Orphans' Industrial School:

Sir: In submitting the following as our sixth annual report of the Printing Department of this institution, we are seriously handicapped from the fact that all our records, such as memorandums of jobs printed, deportment and progress of pupils, account of stock on hand, etc., were lost in the fire that destroyed our Mechanical Building February 20th.

At that time nineteen boys and eleven girls were working in the office and making very satisfactory progress, not only in type-setting, but also in proof reading, press work, making ready book and newspaper forms, setting and working three and four color jobs, and as exchange and literary editors. We had a vast assortment of plain and fancy job work, set and printed by the pupils, which we intended placing on exhibition during the commencement season, but all this was lost in the fire.

That all important object of the department, however, the inculcating of the principles of the trade into the minds of the pupils, is on exhibition in printing offices in many parts of the State where our ex-pupils are earning an honorable livelihood by working at their trade.

This was the object aimed at in our work and we are perfectly satisfied with the result of the six months labor, but, of course, very sorry our pupils could not reap the benefits of the practical instruction they would have received in our excellently equipped office in a full school year of ten months, as pupils always learn more rapidly during the last half of a school year than during the first half of it. As we had a number of bright pupils we expected to make a most excellent showing for the school year, in fact the best the department has ever made, which we believe would have been entirely satisfactory to you and to the distinguished gentlemen composing the Commission.

Very respectfully,

JOHN H. POMEROY,
Editor and Printer.

MEDICAL DEPARTMENT.

Chambersburg, Pa., June 30, 1901.

Capt. Geo. W. Skinner, Supt. Soldiers' Orphans' Industrial School,
Scotland, Pa.:

Sir: I have the honor to herewith present to you a report of the medical services rendered at the Soldiers' Orphans' Industrial School, at Scotland, Pa., during the year that has just closed.

This has been a very eventful year in all the departments. The heads of each department have had to labor under many unavoidable difficulties. Our department has not been an exception to the rule. But with all the extra work done and the many difficulties encountered, my work has been very pleasant and gratifying to me.

In my last report I referred to two cases of Tinea Tonsurans (or ring worm of the scalp) which went to their homes for their vacation uncured. They continued the treatment during vacation. In September one returned cured, the other improved; treatment was continued and patient cured. One new case was noticed early in the year but yielded readily to treatment and no other cases came to my notice during the year; so from Tinea Tonsurans the children went to their homes free at this vacation.

Early in the autumn it became known to us that scarlatina was epidemic in and around the village of Scotland, Pa. Notwithstanding the fact that we took every precaution possible to keep the children from being contaminated, our efforts were not successful. Scarlatina became epidemic among the children at the school in the last week of November. Seventy-five cases in all were sent away from the main school building to the hospital and rigidly quarantined. Forty-eight was the highest number we had in the hospital at one time, this was on January 13th. By February 13th all the children were well and back at their regular work; no deaths, no bad results followed. Much could be said in detail about the difficulties encountered in stamping out this epidemic and about our inadequate hospital facilities for treating such an epidemic as this. Much could be said about the extra work that such an epidemic causes, not only in this particular department, but to the superintendent, the matron, the nurses, the principal and others, but as all this is familiar to you I will not make any further comment. However, I can't close this part of my report without thanking the Commission for the courteous manner in which they treated me, in giving me encouragement by the confidence manifested and in sending two additional trained nurses to aid in the care of the children during this epidemic. In fact, there was nothing asked for that was possible to get, that was not promptly and cheerfully forgotten. It must be gratifying to you, and the Commission as well, that I can report so favorably of an epidemic that looked so threatening.

No sooner was this epidemic over until new trouble threatened. A case of small-pox came into the village of Scotland and had it not been for the judicious manner in which it was rigidly quarantined by the health officer, a serious epidemic might have followed. On account of the proximity of the school to the village in which the case of small-pox was, I deemed it best to vaccinate all the children and employes at the school. This was done as quickly as possible.

During the year I treated three fractured fore-arms. All three were bad fractures and troublesome, but all made good recoveries and have good use of their arms.

One boy suffering from appendicitis was removed to the Harrisburg hospital where he was operated upon. He fully recovered and returned to the school in about two months.

One other boy had two fingers of his left hand caught in a machine at the wood department. Amputation being necessary, I removed him to the hospital in Chambersburg, Pa., where I performed the operation. He returned to school on the second day following.

When vacation came all the children were well enough to go to their homes, except one girl, who was detained at the school about ten days because of a severe case of ivy poisoning. She however, recovered fully and went to her home when cured.

As plans have been made and ground broken for a new and complete hospital building for the school, it is to be hoped that we will be able in the future to perform our duties better and with more satisfaction to all.

No deaths occurred during the year. Thanking you and all others who helped to make my work pleasant and effectual, I am,

Very respectfully,

W. F. SKINNER, M. D.

MILITARY DEPARTMENT.

Capt. G. W. Skinner, Supt.:

Dear Sir: I here submit my fifth annual report of the Soldiers' Orphans' Industrial School military department.

At the close of the school session June 30, 1900, the Commission saw fit to elect the military instructor principal of schools. They then elected Major Henry B. Smith, the ranking cadet officer of the battalion, assistant military instructor.

Owing to increased duties, I have not been able to give as much personal attention to the drills as last year, but the assistant military instructor has carried out the same system of drills in a very masterly manner. Instruction and drill in this department began with the opening of school and has been kept up regularly during the entire year. If boys were unable to perform the regular drills and exercises prescribed for the line, they were formed into separate classes and given special work suited to their strength and physical condition. After a course of this kind we have without an exception found the boys prepared to take part in all the required drills and exercises.

A number of our competent officers of the preceding year's battalion returned to school and were a great help in organizing and drilling the new battalion into a fair state of proficiency. This we were able to accomplish before September 18th, when the band and battalion led the Street Carnival parade in Chambersburg. A squad of the boys took part in the sham battle on the same date. The band and battalion gave a very pretty dress parade on the public square of the same town after the exercises on Memorial Day.

The drill and general conduct of the boys on the two days trip to Gettysburg, June 4th and 5th, was very creditable.

When all the lights were suddenly extinguished and the cry of fire rang through the building on the night of February 20th, our discipline was fully tested as to its efficiency. We had made the test as a fire drill but this was the first time the reality had confronted us. I am happy to say the action of our young pupils was all that could be desired. Not a boy left the dormitories until the command was given to do so and then only the fire fighters went out. They came in good order and went promptly into service, doing effective work as long as necessary. Those who were not needed on the scene of action were kept in their dormitories safe from the bitter cold of the night. They were in charge of faithful boy officers.

The boys have maintained a high standard in athletics and have reason to be proud of the season's record.

The girls' physical culture classes, directed by Miss Small, began drilling earlier this year than has been customary and kept faithfully at it till the close of school year. Their series of exhibition drills were particularly well chosen and admirably executed.

I wish to thank the members of the Commission and the superintendent for their many valuable suggestions and kindly recognition of the physical culture and military departments.

Very respectfully,

W. C. BAMBRICK.

MACHINE DEPARTMENT.

Scotland, Pa., June 30, 1901.

Capt. Geo. W. Skinner, Supt., Scotland, Pa.:

Sir: I have the honor to herewith submit the report of the machine department of the Soldiers' Orphans' Industrial School for the year just closed.

The beginning of the term, September 1, 1900, found everything in first class condition, and I fully expected to surpass any previous year in this department. Castings were on hand for a 12x60 inch LaBlond engine lathe, and also a 13x72 inch Blaisdell engine lathe almost completed. I fully expected to have both lathes finished by this time, and by so doing add two lathes to the equipment of the department. I had also started to build six small cannon. Work on all this machinery was progressing rapidly, and all the pupils were very much interested in their work, and in addition to the work just mentioned were many other articles under construction of various forms, the same designed in such a manner as to give the pupils instruction in the various mechanical movements at the vice and on the machines in the department.

Owing to an unusual amount of sickness in the school the average attendance of pupils in the department had been somewhat reduced for several weeks, and about the time the pupils on the sick list had returned to the department again our work was cut short by fire on February 20th, which totally destroyed the machine shop.

Since that time I have been engaged with a number of my pupils going over the machinery taken from the wreck to see if I could recover anything that would be of use in the department when again opened, and also for some weeks assisting in getting things ready for the new building.

In conclusion permit me to thank the Commission and officials of the school for many courtesies.

Respectfully submitted,

A. B. BEARD,
Instructor.

WOOD DEPARTMENT.

Scotland, Pa., June 30, 1901.

Capt. George W. Skinner, Superintendent Soldiers' Orphan Industrial School:

Dear Sir: This department started the school year with thirty-four boys all determined to make it a successful and profitable year. They worked a great deal on repair work about the Administration building as well as on new work, such as tables, shelving, brackets and scroll work for buildings, small tables and a large variety of fancy articles, as well as Indian clubs and dumb-bells for the other schools of our system. A few days after the fire, which occurred on February 20th, this department started to work in the carriage house, making tables and benches to place in the other departments about to start. The boys of this department have made twenty cabinet benches which will be placed in the wood department in the new Mechanical building as soon as that structure is completed. They have also made the tables for the tailoring department.

The fire demonstrated to me one very important thing. Some parties claimed we had too much machinery in our former shop and that we should work only on benches. I differed with this view and believed we should use both machinery and hand tools, as the pupils should be taught how to use both and that the one in no way interfered with the other. After the fire this opinion was confirmed as the boys readily performed the work with hand tools that they had been accustomed to do with machinery.

None of the boys in this department who arrived at the age of sixteen this year lost more than a week from their trade on account of the fire, as the Commission purchased new tools immediately and the work was continued about as usual throughout the term.

Eleven boys were discharged from this department on age during the year. Their places were filled by boys brought from other schools. At the present time there are thirty-six on the roll.

Respectfully submitted,

THOMAS G. BERING,
Instructor.

LAUNDRY DEPARTMENT.

Scotland, Pa., June 30, 1901.

Capt. G. W. Skinner, Superintendent Soldiers' Orphans' Industrial School:

Dear Sir: I have the honor hereby to present the following report of the laundry department for the year ending June 30, 1901.

In this department there are two employes, including myself. We have at present six boys and from four to six girls, from 8.30 until 11.30 A. M., and from 1.30 until 4.30 P. M. We have been handling in that time, on an average about 4,000 pieces per week, including employes' clothes, the average on the entire lot being about 500 pieces per week less than the previous year. The machinery and everything pertaining to the laundry department is in the best of condition. The department of both boys and girls have been excellent.

Respectfully,

H. E. STAHLER,
Foreman of Laundry.

BRASS BANDS.

Scotland, Pa., June 30, 1901.

Capt. G. W. Skinner, Superintendent Soldiers' Orphans' Industrial School:

Dear Sir: In compliance with your request, I submit my annual report of the bands for the year ending June 30, 1901.

The boy band was reorganized September 20th with twenty-eight members on the following instruments: Five cornets, four clarinets, one piccolo, four altos, four tenors (two slide and two valve), two baritones, one B bass, two E basses, two snare drums, one bass drum, cymbals and drum major. During the year two boys transferred from the Chester Spring School, were taken in (one clarinet and one piccolo), making the number thirty. The girl band, a new feature at the school, was organized September 26th with twenty-eight instruments, the same number as the boys, with the exception of having one more cornet, but having one clarinet and one piccolo and drum major less, than the boys. Both bands practiced twice daily, the boys from 12.25 until 1.20 P. M., and from 4.30 to 5.15 P. M., the girl band from 7.30 until 8.20 A. M., and from 6.00 to 6.45 P. M.; the girls also practiced Saturday from 1.00 until 3.30 P. M. February the 20th the band instruments were destroyed by fire, throwing the bands out of practice for four weeks, until the Commission purchased a new set for them. They now have a fine silver plated set of instruments, far superior to the old ones, enabling them to do better work. May the 30th both bands played at Chambersburg for the G. A. R., at that place, also at Gettysburg, June 4th and 5th. Their music at both places was highly appreciated.

Respectfully,

H. E. STAHLER,
Band Instructor.

BAKERY.

Scotland, Pa., June 30, 1901.

Capt. Geo. W. Skinner, Supt. Soldiers' Orphans' Industrial School:

Sir: In compliance with your request, I submit the following report of the baking department for the year ending June 30, 1901.

At the opening of the school term, September 1, there were twelve boys detailed to this department to learn the trade, each working half-day periods, making six in each detail.

The deportment of the pupils of this department has been good and all in my judgment are making satisfactory progress.

The past year's work was practically unchanged from that of former years. Our principal aim has been to give the boys the practical part of the trade which they will need to secure a position on leaving this school.

We have made during the year 131,000 pounds of bread, 52,800 rolls, 10,500 pies, 145,150 small cakes, 300 large sponge cakes, 250 lady cakes, 275 pound cakes, 100 jelly rolls, 300 pound fruit cakes.

In conclusion I wish to thank you for the many courtesies extended and also favors granted.

Respectfully yours,

S. C. HEIGES.

DEPARTMENT OF TELEGRAPHY, STENOGRAPHY AND TYPEWRITING.

Scotland, Pa., June 30, 1901.

To Capt. Geo. W. Skinner, Superintendent:

Sir: I have the honor to herewith submit the sixth annual report of this department.

The past year's work was a continuation of the excellent system in operation by my predecessor, with most satisfactory results. The pupils of both sexes, a number of whom when leaving the school upon reaching the age of sixteen, by their efficiency, soon secured remunerative positions in business offices as stenographers and typewriters, and also in railroad telegraph offices. I am gratified to commend most highly the deportment of the students in this department, and their close application to studies.

Very respectfully,

JOHN S. WELTMER,
Acting Instructor.

TAILORING DEPARTMENT.

Scotland, Pa., July 22, 1901.

Capt. Geo. W. Skinner, Supt. Soldiers' Orphans' Industrial School:

Dear Sir: I have the honor to submit my second report of the tailoring department. We had 80 suits on hand, which were burned on February 20th, and on the following day by order of the Commission, I ordered a complete outfit and the department was reopened in the hospital building on March 14th, and from that time until June 20th we completed 160 uniforms and 30 graduating suits. The pupils of the department knew that our time in which to complete the full line was much limited and they worked faithfully to that end and I am much pleased with the work they accomplished in that time.

The department of the pupils of the past year has been very good.

Very respectfully,

L. C. MARTIN,
Cutter and Instructor.

Supplementary.

Upon examination of my books I find that between March 14th (when we resumed work after the fire of February 20th) and June 22d, when this department was closed for the term, there was manufactured as follows: 160 uniform suits, estimated cost each $4.00; total, $640.00; 30 citizen suits, estimated cost each $5.23; total, $156.90.

This estimate only covers cost of material.

L. C. MARTIN.

The following resolutions are published for the information of all concerned:

Whereas, It has been found that the custom of providing meals or other entertainment of this kind for the large crowd who usually attend the annual commencement exercises of the Soldiers' Orphan Schools has become a severe tax upon the energies and physical endurance of the employes, and has seriously interfered with the work of the children in preparing for the parts they must take in the various exercises; therefore,

IN MEMORIAM.

Office of the Commission of S. O. Schools,
Harrisburg, Pa., Dec. 18, 1900.

The Commission of Soldiers' Orphan Schools direct that the following minute be placed of record on the death of our late and honored member, the Hon. William F. Stewart, who died December 1, 1900.

Hon. William F.
